

MINI-INSTITUTE

Bullying: Replies, Rebuttals, Confessions and Catharsis
A Theatre-based Workshop Facilitated By Magdalena Gomez

December 6, 2012

Providence, Rhode Island: Location TBA

Professional Development Credit through the Rhode Island Department of Education

Participant Registration Application

This SmART Schools' Bullying 1 Day Institute's regular registration fee will be covered in full by a grant provided by the Rhode Island Foundation to educators from Rhode Island middle and high schools. This is an extraordinary professional development opportunity valued at $200. Space is limited and preference will be given to RI urban secondary teachers.

DEADLINE: November 16, 2012

APPLICATION DATE: _____

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY. Check one: I will be attending as part of a team. I will be attending alone.

| | |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Name _____ | School name _____ |
| Title or position _____ | School system _____ |
| Home address _____ | School address _____ |
| _____ | _____ |
| City, State, Zip _____ | City, State, Zip _____ |
| Day telephone _____ | Evening telephone _____ |
| Home E-mail _____ | School E-mail _____ |
| Contact in case of emergency _____ | Telephone _____ |

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Education _____

Experience _____

What I hope to take away from this SmART Schools' Bullying mini-institute experience _____

Signed _____ Date _____

Please email or mail your completed registration forms to Eileen Mackin before registration deadline November 16, 2012. (Interdisciplinary teams must submit one application for each participant).

Eileen Mackin, Founder and Director
SmART Schools
56 Dennett Street
Portsmouth, NH 03801
eileenmackin@smartschoolsnetwork.org
phone: 603 494-1031

Institute Hours:
8:15 Continental Breakfast
8:45 Workshop Begins
11:45 Lunch
12:15 Workshop Continues
2:30 Workshop Ends
2:30 Reflections & Debrief

Note: All Materials, Continental Breakfast and Full Lunch Provided